Comparing American Political Parties

'se the following two websites to compare and contrast the two dominating parties in America today, the Republican and the Democrats. Use only their platform sites (listed below) to complete the following chart and questions. Please fill in answers completely; this will be graded on completion and accuracy.

www.gop.com (Republican Party)   www.democrats.org (Democratic Party)

Issue	Republican Party	Democratic Party
National Security
Economy

Education
Energy
Health Care

Questions - www.democrats.org

1) What issues did the democrats.org webpage specifically address that the gop.com webpage did not? Why do you think this is?

2) What is the first impression you get when you access this webpage? (Is there a slogan? A symbol? A political message?)

3) Is there any social networking sites advertised on this webpage? If so, which ones?

4) How does this page attempt to further its campaign motives? (What things is this webpage doing to try to help democratic candidates win elections?)

5) What type of impression did you have from this webpage?

6) How does this webpage address the Republican Party?

Questions – www.gop.com

1) What issues did the gop.com webpage specifically address that the democrats.com webpage did not? Why do you think this is?

2) What is the first impression you get when you access this webpage? (Is there a slogan? A symbol? A political message?)

3) Is there any social networking sites advertised on this webpage? If so, which ones?

4) How does this page attempt to further its campaign motives? (What things is this webpage doing to try to help democratic candidates win elections?)

5) What type of impression did you have from this webpage?

6) How does this webpage address the Democratic Party?