Statements by Four Speakers—Multiple Choice

Directions: Read these statements about Nunavut made by four different speakers. Then choose the best answer to each question.

Speaker 1: "We have lived on this land for more than 4,000 years, since long before the Europeans arrived, and we have a right to govern ourselves."	Speaker 2: "After many years of negotiation, I am proud to announce that we have reached an agreement with the Inuit."
Speaker 3: "This new territory, which will be called Nunavut, comprises 733,600 square miles of land. The capital will be Iqualuit on Baffin Island."	Speaker 4: "I don't understand why people living in this beautiful country want to break away and have their own territory, but I guess that's their choice."
