

GRØW

Grade 7 - Week 10

Dandy Doe

CONCEPTS

QUESTIONS

Equator Gulf	1. Which state usually has the coldest year round weather and why: Tennessee, Oregon, Arizona, Georgia? 2. What is the largest gulf in the world?
Continent Contiguous, location	1. What term do geographers use when they refer to the land masses of Europe and Asia as one? 2. The forty-eight states that touch one another are called contiguous. Name the states that are not part of the contiguous United States.
Time zone, longitude Location	1. Every 15 degrees of longitude on the Earth marks another time zone. Into how many time zones is the Earth divided? 2. How many states begin with the letter "R"?
Longitude, International Date Line Ocean, area	1. What is the approximate degrees of longitude for the International Date Line? 2. Name the four oceans in order of size, largest to smallest.